Lyrics

"Fair Harvard"

By Samuel Gilman, Class of 1811

[Revised 1998]

Fair Harvard! we join in thy Jubilee throng,
And with blessings surrender thee o'er.
By these Festival-rites, from the Age that is past,
To the Age that is waiting before.
O Relic and Type of our ancestors' worth,
That hast long kept their memory warm,
First flow'r of their wilderness! Star of their night!
Calm rising thro' change and thro' storm.

2014 Class Ode

*Written and performed by: Allyson Maria Freedy '14,
Sebastian Gomez '14, Radhika Jain '14, Stephen Leo Kent '14,
James Thomas Looney '14, and Georgia Helena Abrantes Shelton '14*

Come classmates and loved ones, rejoice on this day,
Take a breath now that four years have passed.
From bright Crimson lanyards to tassels and gown,
To the futures with which we've been tasked.
First housing day nerves, then storming the yard,
Taming Yale yet again and again.
All-nighters, plans changing, fears hidden and shared,
Still we stood not alone, but as friends.

Resolutely we plunged into erudite toil,
Treasured instincts of home we soon found.
Then deadlines, they seemed not to matter at all,
As we echoed the strength of this town.
Fair Harvard so dear, we cherish with pride,
Every upset and triumph we've lived,
Of science and art and of courage we've learned,
Now we part to create and to give.
