GAUDEAMUS IGITUR

Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus;
Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus;
Let us rejoice while we are young;
Post jucundam juventutem,
After our delightful youth,
Post molestam senectutem,
After grievous old age,
Nos habebit humus, Nos habebit humus.
The earth will hold us.

Alma Mater floreat, Quae nos educavit;
Alma Mater floreat, Quae nos educavit;
Let our nourishing mother flourish,
She who educated us;
Caros et commilitones,
Friends and colleagues,
Dissitas in regiones,
Scattered to disparate regions,
Sparsos congregavit, Sparsos congregavit.
She has gathered together.

Traditional

HARVARDIANA

With Crimson in triumph flashing,
'Mid the strains of victory,
Poor Eli's hopes we are dashing
Into blue obscurity.
Resistless our team sweeps goalward
'Mid the fury of the blast;
We'll fight for the name of Harvard
Till the last white line is passed.

Harvard! Harvard! Harvard!
Harvard! Harvard! Harvard!
Harvard! Harvard! Harvard!

Words by R.G. Williams, 1911
Arranged by Leroy Anderson AB '29, AM '30

RADCLIFFE, NOW WE RISE TO GREET THEE

Radcliffe, now we rise to greet thee,
Alma Mater, hail to thee!
All our hearts are one in singing
Of our love and loyalty.
We have learn'd to know each other
In thy light, which clearly beams,

Thou hast been a kindly Mother,
Great fulfiller of our dreams.
Radcliffe, now we rise to greet thee,
Alma Mater, hail to thee!

Words by Floretta Elmore, 1909
Music by Emily Coolidge, 1908

FAIR HARVARD

Fair Harvard! We join in thy Jubilee throng,
And with blessings surrender thee o'er,
By these Festival-rites, from the Age that is past
To the Age that is waiting before.
O Relic and Type of our ancestors' worth,
That has long kept their memory warm,
First flow'r of their wilderness! Star of their night!
Calm rising thro' change and thro' storm.

Farewell! Be thy destinies onward & bright!
To thy children the lesson still give,
With freedom to think, & with patience to bear,
And for Right ever bravely to live.
Let not moss-covered Error moor thee at its side,
As the world on Truth's current glides by,
Be the herald of Light, and the bearer of Love,
Till the stock of the Puritans die.

Original Words by Samuel Gilman, 1811
Arranged by Leroy Anderson AB '29, AM '30

THE 2011 HARVARD MEDAL RECIPIENTS

The Harvard Medals have been given by the Harvard Alumni Association since 1981 in recognition of extraordinary service to the University.

ALBERT CARNESALE AM '78 (HON.) donned many hats during his service to Harvard. While concurrently serving as dean of the Harvard Kennedy School (HKS) and provost of the University, he served as acting president of the University during President Neil Rudenstine's leave of absence. Upon Rudenstine's return, Carnesale played an important role in the University's $2.1 billion capital campaign, particularly with the international aspects of the campaign.

Carnesale joined the HKS faculty in 1974 and was appointed dean in 1991. During his term, he increased collaboration among faculty members and academic programs across the University, and by continuing in his position as dean while serving as provost, he strengthened the School's ties with the rest of the University.

Known for his expertise in international affairs, national security, and science and technology policy, he has maintained ties to Washington over the years, serving as an adviser to every administration since President Richard Nixon's. Carnesale retired from Harvard as Lucius N. Littauer Professor of Public Policy and Administration Emeritus in 1997; he then served as chancellor of the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA), from 1997 to 2006, and he remains a professor there.

FRANCES FERGUSSON AM '66, PHD '73, president of Vassar College from 1986 until 2006 and professor of art emerita, is unequalled in the breadth of her involvement across the University. President of the Harvard Board of Overseers (2007–2008), she serves on several Visiting Committees, including those to the College and the Graduate School of Design. She is currently the chair of the Visiting Committee to the University Library, which advised on the reorganization of the Harvard libraries. A 1999 recipient of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences (GSAS) Centennial Medal, she is a former head teaching fellow in Fine Arts 13 at Harvard and a 1974 Bunting Institute fellow at Radcliffe.

She was a member of Harvard's Presidential Search Committee (2006–2007) that selected Drew Gilpin Faust as Harvard's twenty-eighth president, and, most recently, she was a member of the Harvard Corporation Governance Review Committee, which embraced a number of significant changes, including its first expansion since its creation 360 years ago.

PETER MALKIN AB '55 SUMMA CUM LAUDE, JD '58 MAGNA CUM LAUDE cares deeply for Harvard, and his tireless service over the years has been substantial.

He has served on many boards and committees of the University: as an Overseer, an HAA Elected Director, a John Harvard Fellow, the founding chair of the New York Major Gifts Committee, and also on Visiting Committees to the Law School, Natural and Applied Sciences, Humanities and Arts, and Finance, Management, and Administration, and on the College and Law School Dean's Councils, among others. He is an original member of the Executive Committee of the Committee on University Resources (COUR).

Malkin has been a leader at the Harvard Kennedy School (HKS), serving as founding chair of the Dean's Council, a member of the Visiting Committee continually since 1986, and chair of the Campaign Executive Committee during Harvard's last capital campaign. A generous donor to HKS, he has endowed professorships, contributed unrestricted funds, and made possible the Peter and Isabel Malkin Penthouse in the Littauer Building.

Malkin has also directed major gifts toward the Law School and to the Faculty of Arts and Sciences, including the first electronic classroom in Hauser Hall and the restoration of the Malkin Athletic Center, and has served as reunion gift co-chair for every reunion of his Harvard College and Law School classes. He also chaired the College's Schools and Scholarship Committee for Greenwich, Connecticut.

He is chairman of the New York law firm Wien & Malkin and chairman of Malkin Holdings and Malkin Properties, national real estate investment and asset management enterprises.
